

Advanced/Horse Show camp - $450/week

Monday – Friday 8:00 – 3:00

Limit 10 riders (more allowed if riders are using their own horse)

For riders who are comfortable jumping at least a small course of jumps. Every day will have one mounted lesson, as well as lectures on topics regarding care of the horse and preparation for a horse show. Each rider will have a handout book to take home with them at the end of the week. Topics include feeding & mucking, in depth tack care and descriptions (ie purpose of different bits), grooming and bathing for a show, mane pulling and braiding, clipping, course setting, bandaging and leg care, and more. Each day will focus on a different discipline (Hunter, Equitation, Jumper). Friday will include a grooming competition and a demonstration ride with the different disciplines highlighted and demonstrated. Riders will also learn about our IEA program. Riders are welcome to use their own horse for camp, and depending on space we may be able to accommodate riders bringing their horse for the week (additional charge applies for use of stall).

Dates: 6/3 – 6/7

Beginner Camp - $450/week

Monday – Friday 8:30 – 2:00

Limit 10 riders

For beginners aged 7-13. “Beginner” describes riders who have no experience, or limited experience such as trail rides, pony rides, or a week of camp in the past. Beginner riders are not yet comfortable trotting without a leader.

Covers grooming, tacking, safe handling of the horse, parts of the horse, parts of the tack, basics of horse care such as basic feeding and stall cleaning. 1 or 2 rides each day, typically 1 structured lesson and one “fun ride” such as bareback, games, trail ride, etc. Includes arts and crafts and a handout book to keep at the end of the week. Friday includes a grooming contest and a riding demonstration for the parents to see what their riders have learned during the week, as well as an awards presentation.

Dates: 6/24 – 6/28

All Levels Camp - $450/week

Monday – Friday 8:30 – 2:00

For riders aged 7 – 15. Limit 10 riders.

This week of camp will be open to Beginners, Novice, and Advanced riders. Riders will ride in groups of the appropriate level. See descriptions of Beginner, Novice, and Advanced camp above.

Dates: 6/10 – 6/14, 7/8 – 7/12, 8/5 – 8/9